

The Departments of Agricultural and Resource Economics and Economics Present

The 7th Annual Graduate Research Symposium

Colorado State University, Clark Building, Room C307

April 10th, 2015

9:30 am Breakfast & Introduction

Session 1: Topic Proposal

10:00 am Using an Agent Based Model to Analyze Cooperative Management of Locusts, Anne Byrne, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

10:15 am Incidence of the corporate income tax on factors' income in the presence of outsourcing, Eliakim Kakpo, Department of Economics.

10:30 am Untitled (Topic of Agritourism), Anders Van Sandt, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

Session 2: Conference Ready

11:00 am Agglomeration economies: measuring the impact of information spillovers arising from entrepreneurial activity across densities, Michael Yeadon, Department of Economics.

11:25 am Accounting for well capacity constraints in the economic decision-making of groundwater users, Sam Collie, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

12:00 – 2:00 pm Lunch and Discussion

Session 3: Topic Proposal

2:00 pm Natural Disasters and Institutional Development, Ryan Levitt, Department of Economics.

2:15 pm Policy Effectiveness in a Common Property Resource with Threshold Uncertainty and Heterogeneous Users, Alex Maas, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.

2:30 pm Untitled (Topic of Grandparent Childcare), Michael Roberts, Department of Economics.

Session 4: Conference Ready

3:00 pm Shadow Economies, Institutions and Structure: An Empirical Cross-Country Study of the Impacts and Determinants of System-D, Jose Galvez, Department of Economics.

3:25 pm Feral swine eradication, Jason Holderieath, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics.