

DARE Seminar Series

Fall 2009 Wednesday Lunch Seminar Series*

Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics & Department of Economics, US Forest Service Rocky Mountain Research Station, NSF

The first seminar is on a Friday. The last seminar is on a Monday.*

When: 12-1pm Where: Animal Sciences, Room 110

Friday, September 11

Are Recreation Values Systematically Underestimated? Getting Beyond Publication Bias

Speaker: Dr. Tom Stanley, Hendrix College (Coauthor-Randall Rosenberger, Oregon State University)

Wednesday, September 16

Animal Identification and Tracing in the United States

Speaker: Dr. Dustin Pendell, Colorado State University

Wednesday, September 23

The Windy Commons?

Speaker: Dr. Daniel Kaffine, Colorado School of Mines

Wednesday, September 30

Household Perceptions of Climate Change and Preferences for Mitigation Action: The Case of the Carbon Pollution Reduction Scheme in Australia

Speaker: Sonia Akter, Australian National University

Wednesday, October 7

Environmental Federalism with Regards to Accidental Pollution

Speaker: Dr. Klaas van't Veld, University of Wyoming (Coauthor Jason F. Shogren, University of Wyoming)

Wednesday, October 14

The Higher Price of Cleaner Fuels: Market Power in the Rail Transport of Fuel Ethanol

Speaker: Dr. Jonathan Hughes, University of Colorado

Wednesday, October 21

Economic Values of National Park System Resources Within the Colorado River Waters

Speaker: Bruce Peacock, National Park Service

Wednesday, October 28

Mother and Child Economic Behavior Profiles and Dynamics and Susceptibility to Obesity

Speaker: Dr. Mariah Ehmke, University of Wyoming

Wednesday, November 4

Modeling Adaptive Experimentation: Learning about Growth of an Endangered Species

Speaker: Dr. Craig Bond, Colorado State University

Wednesday, November 11

The Impact of 'Right of First Refusal' on the Competitiveness of Fed Cattle Markets: Results from an Economic Experiment

Speaker: Dr. Stephen Koontz, Colorado State University

Monday, November 30

Is Reducing the Risk of a Harm Really a Gain? – Some Behavioural Findings, Some Implications, and Some Speculations on Our Choice of Measure of Welfare Changes

Speaker: Jack L. Knetsch, Simon Fraser University