THE DEPARTMENT of
HORTICULTURE &
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE

Horticulture and Landscape Architecture develops future leaders through hands on experience. Discover, apply & disseminate knowledge & technology.

FIND YOUR MAJOR
We have a nationally top rated Minor in Organic Agriculture along with concentrations in:

1. ENVIRONMENTAL HORTICULTURE
2. HORTICULTURE
3. LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE

AREAS OF STUDY WITHIN THE MAJORS
WE HAVE A NATIONALLY TOP RATED MINOR IN ORGANIC AGRICULTURE ALONG WITH CONCENTRATIONS IN:
- Floriculture
- Landscape Design & Contracting
- Horticultural Business Management
- Nursery & Landscape Management
- Horticultural Food Crops
- Turf Management
- Horticultural Science
- Viticulture & Enology

THE FLOWER TRIAL GARDEN
WE USE OUR GARDEN TO:
- Provide learning and work opportunities for students
- Evaluate annual and perennial plant species in the Rocky Mountain environment.
- The garden is a Fort Collins landmark and draws thousands of visitors each year.

EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES
- Education
- Greenhouse Production
- Landscape Architecture & Design
- Nursery Management
- Plant Breeding & Research
- Public Garden Management
- Sports/Golf Course Turf Management
- Vegetable & Fruit Production

STUDENT CLUBS
- Horticulture Club
- Pi Alpha Xi
- Student Chapter of the ASLA Students of Landscape Design & Contracting
- Turf Grass Management Club
- Vines to Wines Club

AGSCI.COLOSTATE.EDU
There’s something about Fort Collins that attracts all of the right elements. The result is a community that blends education and industry, hard work and recreation, tradition and progress. If you’re looking for a college experience with the perfect fusion of culture, opportunity and adventure, Fort Collins is where you’ll find it.