INDEPENDENT STUDY

In

Animal and Equine Sciences

This form must be complete before the student registers for the course. Independent studies are usually one or two credits per semester and are graded on a Pass/Fail (P/F) basis.

The requirements for independent study in Animal and Equine Sciences are: 1. Formulate specific goals for the study. 2. As a guideline, write out a schedule showing what is to be done and when – at least three hours per credit hour per week. 3. Specify criteria for course evaluation. 4. Regular conference with the supervisor is required. 5. A daily record of activities and time spent in them is expected. 6. This daily record of activities and a summary paper describing results and learning experience is required to be turned in by the end of the semester. This will go in the student's permanent file after grading. Only a study that is organized in this manner will be considered a valid Independent Study.
