CSU Livestock Judging 6th Annual Golf Outing

CSU Livestock Judging

Colorado State University's Livestock Judging program dates back to 1914, when the first team competed at the National Western Stock Show. Since then, CSU Livestock Judging has garnered many accolades, and the program is one of the best in the country. Proceeds from the golf outing support the Livestock Judging team's travel and other expenses.

The Outing

The golf outing is an event for alumni, supporters, donors, friends, golfers, and families. Your CSU graduation year will determine your decade for the battle. Your challenge will be to help your decade bring in the most funds to support the CSU Livestock Judging program. Support your decade by putting together a team of either golfers or sponsors to see who can raise the most money. For those who don't golf, Pelican Lakes has a great pool to enjoy during the day. Then, in the evening, enjoy a steak dinner with fellow livestock alumni.

Event Schedule

Afternoon Tee Time | 1 p.m.
Awards, steak dinner, and auction immediately following the outing.
