

Title	Fate of Pesticides in the Environment
Description	Program 1: Provides a brief overview of pesticides. Also discusses specific factors that affect pesticides after application and what eventually happens to these chemicals in the environment. Program 2: Presents various degradation processes, the factors that affect them, and discusses their implications on the control of the target pest, resistance in the environment, and the interaction with the transfer processes presented in program 1.
Copyright Date	1991
Length	50 minutes
Originator	Marathon Agricultural/Environmental Consulting
Format	Video (2 tapes) and DVD (2 discs)
Status	2 of 2 Video copies available 1 of 1 DVD copies available