CSU Livestock Judging 10th Annual Golf Outing

CSU Livestock Judging

Colorado State University's Livestock Judging program dates back to 1914, when the first team competed at the National Western Stock Show. Since then, CSU Livestock Judging has garnered many accolades, and the program is one of the best in the country. Proceeds from the golf outing support the Livestock Judging team's travel and other expenses.

The Outing

The golf outing is an event for alumni, supporters, donors, friends, golfers, and families. Immediately following the golf tournament, enjoy a meal with fellow livestock supporters, and stick around for a live auction. Proceeds will support the Livestock Judging team.
