

Soil and Crop Sciences
Seminar Schedule
Spring 2018
12:00 p.m. to 12:50 p.m. - W212 Plant Science Building

Date	Speaker	Topic
January 25	Dr. Wilma Trujillo Area Agronomist Logan and Morgan Counties CSU Cooperative Extension Colorado State University	The CSU Agronomy Extension Program: Challenges and Opportunities
February 9 (Friday)	Dr. Greg Lowry Walter J. Blenko, Sr. Professor of Civil & Environmental Engineering Dy Director, Center for Environmental Implications of Nanotechnology Carnegie Mellon University	Engineering Nanomaterials for Sustainable Agriculture Senate Chambers, Lory Student Center Friday, February 9 th 1:00 – 2:00 pm
February 22	Dr. Pat Byrne Department of Soil and Crop Sciences Colorado State University	Germplasm Morgue or Gold Mine? Making the U.S. National Plant Germplasm System More Relevant to Plant Breeding
March 8	Dr. Randa Jabbour Department of Plant Sciences University of Wyoming	Who's Learning from Who? Integrating Farmer Perspectives into Research and the Classroom
March 22	Dr. Becca Jablonski Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics Colorado State University	Evaluating the economic impacts of local and regional food systems
April 5	Mark Sponsler Executive Director Colorado Corn	Farming and Corn - Challenges and Opportunities
April 19	Brad Erker Executive Director Colorado Wheat	Colorado Wheat: A New Era with Traits Begins
May 3	Graduate Student Department of Soil and Crop Sciences Colorado State University	Various Topics