

Seminars - Spring 2018

Wednesday, February 21, 12:00-1:15pm, Clark C364

Is Fast Food Addictive? Evidence from an Experiment Utilizing Continuous Glucose Monitoring

Speaker: Trent Smith, University of Otago, New Zealand

Friday, February 23, 3:00-4:30pm, BHSCI 103 (joint seminar with Economics)

What Cost Convenience in a Recycling Program

Speaker: Peter Berck, University of California, Berkeley

Friday, March 2, 1:00-5:00pm, Lory Student Center 308

IGNITE and Graduate Student Research Symposium

(with the University of Wyoming Economic Graduate Students)

Thursday, March 8, 3:30-5:00pm, Clark A204

Dam Building in the 21st Century: Using Water Markets to Estimate Public Benefits from New

Water Infrastructure Projects in California

Speaker: Ryan Shepler, WestWater Research

Thursday, March 15, SPRING BREAK

Thursday, October 26, 3:30-4:45pm, Clark C360

Simulating the Effect of the Nutrition Fact Label Revision: Added Sugar and the Demand for Ready-to-Eat Breakfast Cereals

Speaker: Alessandro Bonanno, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics, Colorado State University

Friday, March 23, 3:00-4:30, BHSCI 103 (Fly-out Day, jointly with Economics)

Lost in Translation: What do Engel Curves Tell us about the cost of living?

Speaker: Timothy Beatty, University of California, Davis

Thursday, March 29, No Seminar

Thursday, April 5, 3:30-5:00pm, Clark A204

TBD

Speaker: Tobin Magle, Cyberinfrastructure Facilitator, Morgan Library, Colorado State University

Thursday, April 12, 3:30-5:00pm, Clark A204

The Power of Agricultural Intelligence – Building Real Time Predictive Analytics with a Standardized Global Ag-Meteorology Foundation

Speaker: John Corbett, aWhere

Thursday, April 19, 3:30-5:00pm, Clark A204

Behavior Economics in Natural Hazards: Social Comparisons and Other Nudges

Speaker: James Meldrum, USGS