

Agricultural Business

This minor is designed for students with an interest in applied economic and business principles, focusing primarily on agriculture and resource industries. Areas of study in the minor include agricultural production management, financial management, marketing management, international development and trade, natural resources, and environmental economics. Courses with an asterisk are offered online in that semester as well as on campus.

Required Program

21 Credits

___ AREC 202 Agricultural and Resource Economics (f*,s)	3
___ AREC 305 Enterprise Analysis (CS110 or BUS150) (f*,s)	3

Choose 15 Credits from Courses below

___ AREC 310 Agricultural Marketing (f,s*)	3
___ AREC 311 Agricultural & Resource Product Marketing (s)	3
___ AREC 325 Personnel Management in Agriculture (f*)	3
___ AREC 375 Agricultural Law (f)*	3
___ AREC 405 Agricultural Production Management (s)	3
___ AREC 408 Agricultural Finance (s*)	3
___ AREC 412 Agricultural Commodities Marketing (f*)	3
___ AREC 415 International Agricultural Trade (f*)	3
___ AREC 478 Agricultural Policy (f,s*)	3
___ AREC 328 Small Agriculture Business Management (f) OR	3
___ AREC 428 Agricultural Business Management (f*,s)	3

Minimum Requirements

21 Credits

15 upper division AREC Credits

For advising or more information, please contact (either email or in person):

Melanie.Calderwood@colostate.edu

Clark B339 (970) 491-6132

Aubriel.jones@colostate.edu

Clark B338 (970) 491-7307