

Citation

in recognition of

His world renowned leadership in Animal Agriculture -

Including cattle feeding, packing and processing industry, meat merchandising and meat distribution. He influenced the pioneering movement of beef packing plants from urban consumer areas to the sources of cattle and was among the first to begin large-scale beef fabrication. He advised and counseled faculty, students, alumni and friends of Colorado State University and the animal and meat industry of the state, nation and world. His unselfish support and service to a multitude of organizations, State Board of Agriculture, Colorado Commission of Higher Education, Colorado Cattlemen's Association, Governor's Commission on Mental Health and Mental Retardation, American Meat Institute and man others.

The Livestock Leaders Council joins the Department of Animal Sciences at Colorado State University, in selecting

Kenneth W. Monfort

for the

1987 Livestock Leader Award